THE PTA NEEDS YOU!!

We welcome anyone who wants to volunteer in any way for the PTA. You do not have to attend a monthly PTA meeting to volunteer and play a part in making the 2018-2019 school year amazing! If you are looking to get involved, we have plenty of opportunities in the second half of the school year. Send an email to volunteers@bbmspta.org to receive more information.

THANK YOU!

...to everyone who came out to enjoy dinner for our restaurant fundraiser at Chipotle. $212.09 came back to BBMS from a percentage of sales that evening.

Look for one more restaurant night this school year!!

...to everyone who sent their BoxTops in for our contest that ended last week. We will announce the winner of the gift card in our next newsletter. Keep clipping and saving those BoxTops, we will have one more collection before our summer break!

...to everyone who made the Snow Ball dance happen this year!! On February 22nd, the school was turned into a magical winter wonderland with snowflakes and lights, and sparkle!! The students arrived in their best attire and had a blast!! They danced, they laughed, they snacked, they talked, they posed for pics, they played games, and had a fantastic time with all their friends!! Lots of smiles and laughter filled the room. A huge thank you to Glenna Deekle who took the lead to make sure it was a success from beginning to end! Additional thanks to Carver Pugh, Amy Reese, Tara Gorsky, Beth Benoit, Kelly Green, Fran Koung, Maria Twigg, Carolyn Wohnsigle, Jennifer Grimes, Regina Brown, Colleen Rumsey, Matthew OByrne, Nina Markey, Maria Bifsas, Biva Gyawali, Julie Bedwell, Debbie Wood, Rachel Farah, and Heather Fox!! All of these parents played a role in creating a FUN NIGHT- they planned, they decorated, they chaperoned, they served, they set up, they cleaned up, they donated food, they sold tickets, they took pictures – they gave up their time so that 160 students could enjoy themselves and make some more middle school memories!! ALL OF THOSE PARENTS ROCK!!!!!! Thank you Mrs. Carmean and Mrs. Ketterman, as well as our fabulous custodial staff who support us in all our activities!!
