News from BBMS...May 15

Hello BBMS Families,

We hope this note finds you continuing to stay safe and healthy. We are glad to see some movement in our state that allows for some reopening, while we attend to the close of school for this year.

We are attaching a short video for you again this week. It is our small way of staying connected with you. I hope you enjoy the videos from some of our staff too (Thank you Ms. Koslowski, Mr. Garner, Ms. Romans and Mr. Rainey)! Here are topics that we address in the video:

1. Seth Markey, 8th Grade - qualified for NATIONALS in the History Day competition. Congratulations Seth - we are so proud of you!
2. Seraphina Jerome - 8th Grade - won the county award for best middle school film for her entry, "Bloody Mary". Way to go Seraphina!
3. The BBC News continues to impress: video here
4. Check out the BBMS website for videos: school website
5. Staff Appreciation - thank you parents and students, and our PTA!!
6. Week #4 of virtual school - how are you doing?
7. Tech Support - need it?
8. Report Cards and MAP Score Reports are in your Parent Portal.
9. End of Year Celebrations - 8th grade!
10. Yearbooks!
11. Building Access - not yet... sorry!

We hope in providing this summary for you that you are staying organized at home. We hope students are checking in regularly to their classes each week and that they are submitting their assignments every Friday. We are about halfway through the quarter - please let us know what help we can provide to you!

Have a great day BBMS!

Drew Cockley
Principal
