Important Dates and Events!!

January 13- PTA meeting

PTA Updates!!!

Happy new year to everyone!! We have made it past 2020!!! The PTA committee is constantly thinking of ways to keep the moral high for parents and students, so if you have any new ideas or want to express any concerns please join us at a PTA meeting January 13th @ 7pm (BBMSPTA). We are open to suggestions!!

Virtual International Night!!

Virtual International Night, holiday edition is finally here!!!!

This has been a rough year, but we all have managed to keep up our holiday traditions with the ones we love. Thanks so much for all the families who shared their families with us. Please check out the video on the PTA website as well as the BBMS Sharks Instagram site. We would like to thank Momina our International night coordinator for putting this video together for the community.

Hope for Soap Drive!!

Let us help support a former BBMS student for a good cause!! Hope for Soap is catered towards homeless in our communities. From December 7-January 11, 2021. Yildiz Malik is holding a drive for hygiene and sanitary products at the Elkridge Library. All the items will go to Grassroots Crisis Intervention Center and below is a list of things they have asked for specifically. Please share this information with your family and friends and drop off unopened, unused items in the box labeled "Hope for Soap: Toiletries Drive" in the lobby of the Elkridge Library. Make sure to wear a mask and respect social distancing guidelines when dropping off the items. All items will be appreciated. Thank you!
